Barking dogs are harmless.
Especially American dogs.
The BEE will live to chronicle events.

Washington society has become degraded by interlopers.

The Bethel Literary is very cultured, especially with the modesty of its secretary.

Some people will wake up one of these bright mornings and find themselves surrounded.

The war has ended and what has become of the negro it was going to benefit?

The Mutual Admiration Society the picture gallery and Star of Zion.

Judge Taylor is making a commendable record on the bench.

When you know you are right go ahead.

Speak what you know to be right and then you will be doing right.

Major Sylvester is making good changes.

The daily Post has the wind colic.

It continues to suffer with rheumatic gout.

There is but little harmony among our supervising principals.

When the world is disturbed the negro question becomes silent.

The negroes must fight before they will be recognized.

The only charity paper in this city and country is the American.

Its only existence is handing around the contribution hat.

It has no legitimate business of existence.

This anti-saloon league ought to take a rest.

Think well of those who speak kindly of you.

There are many blacklegs in the alleged "cultured Bethel Literary".

The Washington have been imposed upon long enough by intruders.

We want no Afro-American league whose promoters want an office.

You can soon close a negro's mouth by giving him an office.

There is never a convention called until the republican party gets in power.

The colored man is a peculiar being.

They only kick when their friends are in power.

They are mute under the lash of their enemies.

Dr. C. M. Curtis of the Freedmen's hospital secured a letter of indorsement from Senator Mason for Thompson's wife.

The appointment of his madam in the Government Printing Office would be a help to him.

He would like also to have Public Printer Palmer to reinstate him to enable him to resign.

Public Printer Palmer will not be hoodled winked by such chaff.

Curtis has been flattered by this Indianapolis tender-foot.

Some men can be easily flattered.

It is always well to consider well before you commit yourself.

Recorder Cheatham has too much sense to be fooled.

Some people will say anything to get a job.

It is the noble man who does good deeds.

There will be some mustering out of paymasters.

The next political contest will be warm.

Read The BEE if you want a live journal.

Brave men never fear; they know the danger they are in before they start.

If you want to know the news read The BEE.

THE FALLACY OF THE POST

The Washington Post says: "We all now know that the placing of the ballot in the hands of the negro was a mistake and a dismal failure." Who are the "we" referred to in the Post? This personal pronoun, so far as we can ascertain, refers to the old ex-slaveholding class of the south and a few northern doughfaces. It does not refer to the liberty-loving men and women of either section. The simple fact that the south by force and fraud has deprived the negro of that section of a free ballot and a fair count is no more proof that she is right, (unless right makes right,) than the success of the highwayman who holds up a train and robs its passengers. In both cases law and human rights are violated and brute force triumphs. The negro vote unmolested in all the states north of Mason and Dixon line and does so just as intelligently as the average white man. There his vote is sought, the same as that of the German and Irish, by both parties in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and New York State the negro is balance of power in the republican party. In fact Mr. McKinley owes his election to the negro vote.

Will the Post claim that the large colored vote for McKinley was an evidence of the negro's ignorance and therefore the placing of the ballot in his hands was a mistake? Is Mr. McKinley a failure? If so why did the Post support him and why is it supporting him now? The great majority of the southern whites supported Mr. Bryan and, according to the Post, showed lack of judgment and of a true conception of those economic principles whose adoption would work the greatest good to the American people. And yet the Post argues that the southern white, though totally ignorant of the political welfare of the nation, is perfectly justified in his efforts to deprive the negro of casting his ballot for a principle which the Post itself advocated as the proper and only one for the American voter to adopt. Such stupendous inconsistency has never before been seen in the annals of journalism.

The Post says that this is a "white man's government" and that this white man will not tolerate the negro as an equal factor in the body politic. Now this is a little more fair. At any rate it is a plain declaration although based upon false premises.

Section 1, of the 14th Amendment to our Constitution reads as follows: "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

This is the supreme law of the land and shows conclusively that this government is made up of its citizens and is no more a "white man's government" than a black man's government.

We assume that the Post has read this section of the Constitution, as well as those following, which were proposed and adopted for the special purpose of securing to the American Negro all those rights and privileges enjoyed by the white races in this country.

That the Post, possessing this knowledge of the law, continues to violate it by making a crusade against the negro and encouraging the nation to ignore it, can only be explained by citing the fact that from the formation of the colonies to the present time there has been an element opposed to universal liberty and good government.

Now who is this blue-blooded individual at the south who claims to be unable to tolerate the negro? History says that his great-grand mother was put upon the block and sold to the highest bidder for a wife, the price being so many pounds. No wonder that he engaged early in the slave trade and continued it for two hundred and fifty years.

It is evidently the mission of Post to keep up the fight on the negro along the lines laid down by the scheme adopted by the southern colonies and in the meanwhile, it will be the duty of the colored race, through their many newspapers to expose this fraud.

JUDGE TAYLOR.

Perhaps no man, other than Judge Scott, is giving greater satisfaction to the lower branch of the Police Court, than Judge A. S. Taylor. The lower branch of the Police Court is in need of such men as Judge Scott or in his absence such a man as Judge Taylor. He is just and sympathetic to the poor and unfortunate class of prisoners who may be brought to the court. Notwithstanding the many appeals made to him by the prosecuting officer to convict or punish Judge Taylor reason within him self and decide cases according to facts, justice and his conscience. The court is to be commended for having appointed him.

ON THE DEFENSIVE.

For the benefit of the readers of THE BEE and the Colored American, we have no apologies to offer for our defense against the attacks of the Colored American which was unwarrantable. When the BEE exposed the political inconsistency of the Colored American, it made no personal reference to the personal of the paper. The BEE is prepared in every sense to measure arms with its foes when it is right. The BEE has endeavored to answer a few of the personal attacks of the American on THE BEE.

"Thrice is he armed, that has his quarrel just:
And he but naked, though locked up in steel;
Whose conscience with injustice is corrupted."

WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.

From the Colored American.

The above caption appeared in the picture gallery last week, alias the Colored American. It was directed to the editor of THE BEE. For the benefit of the two interlopers, E. E. Cooper and R. W. Thompson, the BEE begs leave to answer a few of the excerpts for the edification of the three hundred subscribers of that paper.

The questions put to the BEE will appear in brevity type, while the BEE's answers will be in long primer.

What person of standing ever jeopardized his interest or liberty by retaining Chase as his lawyer.

E. E. Cooper, editor of the Colored American, was arrested twice, once for false pretenses, in that he gave a check to the Plymouth Rock Clothing House for clothes. There was no money to Cooper's credit in the bank. J. E. Bruce, (Bruce Grit) was principal witness against Cooper.

Cooper was assured that no one could save him but Lawyer Chase. Lawyer Chase was retained and saved him. Last winter Editor Cooper was arrested for embezzlement. The charge was made against him by his friend Lawson, who is now in the Texas Penitentiary. No one could better handle the case than Lawyer Chase, he was retained. Lawyer Chase compromised the case with Mr. Lawson, by Mr. Cooper returning to Mr. Lawson his money. Robert H. Terrell advanced a portion of the money to help Cooper out. District Attorney Mulloney told Cooper if he did not refund the money he would prosecute him. Lawyer Chase saved Cooper. Of course Mr. Cooper, said editorially last week that he was a man of standing. R. W. Thompson who claims to be the managing editor of the Colored American, called to see us soon after his discharge from the Government Printing Office, by virtue of the charges filed against him by his wife. He was in Lawyer Chase's office three or four times a day to retain Mr. Chase to defend him and to clear up his record and refute the charges made against him by his wife. Mr. Thompson said editorially last week that he was a man of standing. He almost crawled on his knees and begged Lawyer Chase to take up his case. Lawyer Chase charged him $5 for legal advice, which he readily paid. Cooper and Thompson have been posing as men of standing.

In how many respectable families does the Bee circulate.

The BEE circulates in families who appreciate the honor of their daughters. It is the guilty who fears the light of THE BEE.

If the Recorder's office will ever be so hard up for help that anybody recommended by Chase can secure an appointment.

R. W. Thompson called to see Lawyer Chase one month ago and asked him to endorse him for a place in the Recorder's office, that he felt sure that Mr. Cheatham would appoint him on Mr. Chase's recommendation. Mr. Chase declined.

If Chase hasn't found out that he cannot intimidate men like Lyons, Lynch, White, Pinchback and Dancy.

The above gentlemen are the BEE's friends. Four of them are paid up subscribers for the BEE. They are reputable gentlemen. President McKinley says so any way.

How long would a man of Chase's caliber be tolerated in any other community than easy-going Washington.

As long as it is necessary to ferret out crime, uncover hypocrisy and bring the guilt to justice. Just so long will Mr. Mr. Chase be tolerated.

If any one knows of a Colored American attaché who has been convicted of crime and served a term in jail.

An editor may be incarcerated for telling the truth and defending the best interest of the community, but no man, much less an editor can lay valid claim to decency, honor or honesty, who has been dismissed from the Railway Mail Service, for robbing the mails and indicted by a grand jury for the same.

Why the editor of the BEE is never permitted to appear before the refined and cultivated Bethel Literary Society.

Because the president who is a moral man doesn't desire the editor of the BEE to contact with immoral and corrupt men. Will the president continue Mr. Thompson as secretary?

Who is this man Chase, and why has he the monumental cheek to pose as a criterion of morals, political and social.

Chase was born and reared in Washington whose parents were reputable and whose reputation was beyond suspicion. He was also born between two planets, Jupiter and Mars and will dare to expose corruption wherever found.

If W. Comedian Chase has the big influence with Public Printer Palmer that he boasts he has.

Public Printer Palmer is a friend to every honest colored man. But he is opposed to rascals. It is true that the BEE did not have as much influence as R. W. Thompson's wife, who had him dismissed from the Government Printing Office, and who is now endeavoring to have her appointed in the office which he says will be a help to him. Dr. Curtis secured a letter from Senator Mason for her. This is accounted for. Thompson and Cooper have been flattering Curtis in their paper. Senator Mason in his letter stated that he didn't know Mrs. Thompson, but on the recommendation of Dr. Curtis he would recommend her. Indorsements have been given Thompson for his wife by Messrs. Lynch, Lyons, Terrell and Senator Fairbanks. Thompson called to see Public Printer Palmer July 30th and begged him to receive his letter of dismissal and allow him to resign. Thompson told some of his friends that he had the Public Printer fooled. Mr. Palmer doesn't think so any way. The BEE will continue its answers in the next and will no doubt be very interesting reading.

CAPT. JOHN M. McDONALD.

THE CONVENTION AT FREDERICK, MD.

Capt. John M. McDonald, who is a candidate for reelection to Congress from the Sixth Congressional district of Maryland will certainly win in the convention at Frederick, Md., to be held September 14th. The Gould faction at the primaries voted demagogues for the purpose of defeating Capt. McDonald. The captain will win at Frederick on the 14th of next month. Watch the BEE's prediction.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATION.

DR. GEO. H. RICHARDSON DELIVERS THE ANNUAL ADDRESS.—DISTINGUISHED PEOPLE PRESENT.

Middleburg, Va., Aug. 15, 1898.—One of the most enjoyable and celebrated occasions that northern Virginia has ever witnessed was that which took place on Friday the 12th instant, in this city. The event was the anniversary of Aberdeen Lodge of this town. By special arrangement, Dr. Geo. H. Richardson of Washington was invited to speak, as orator of the day. Fully 2000 people were assembled in the city to witness and participate in the grand parade. The leading citizens from Fauquier, Loudoun and Prince William counties were present, having traveled from 8 to 22 miles to witness the pageant and to listen to the oration of Dr. Richardson. Mr. O. L. Grant, the moving spirit and teacher of Middleburg, conducted the ceremonies. Other citizens, notably Mr. M. Taylor, also a teacher in Middleburg and one of the most enterprising citizens of the town. Rev. R. P. Dawson, Rev. D. Fisher, divines, Mr. P. W. Gibson, Mr. W. Hansborough and A. R. Smith, teachers in the county and J. E. Fisher, officiated to make the occasion one of pleasure and profit. On account of the rain, which poured in torrents, the procession could not make a display. The large concourse of people, accompanied by two brass bands, however had a most enjoyable time in the city hall and anxiously awaited the address of Dr. Richardson. The address of the doctor was comprehensive and eloquent, touching upon all of the elements of structural growth. He referred to the absence of business, the lack of race pride, the failure to properly sustain the home, temperance and political inactivity as the causes of our present unorganized and weak position and appealed eloquently to the masses for a more widespread disposition to get together a more cohesiveness in all that pertains to the well-being of the race. The absence of a short hand reporter renders us unable to give the exact language and scope of the address, but those who heard it, among whom were the best white and colored citizens of Middleburg, pronounced it to be the best speech ever delivered in this section by black or white. The principles of Oddfellowship were handled in a masterly manner and for one who is not an Oddfellow, with surprising and gratifying felicity. Perhaps one of the most glowing tributes ever paid to an Oddfellow was that pronounced upon Mr. Thomas H. Wright, of Washington, a man who has done as much toward the advancement of the Order as any colored Oddfellow since the days of Peter Ogden. Mr. Wright, it seems, is an associate of Dr. Richardson on the school board and this may account in a measurable degree for the excellence of the school system of Washington. One of the most scathing criticisms ever heard in these parts was that of Dr. Richardson upon the ministry whose duty he insisted was to lead our people out of the slough of despond into the sunlight of pure morality, intelligence and wisdom but many of whom simply catered to the ignorance, superstition and bigotry of the race. He applauded the intelligent ministry and predicted that in a few years the pulpit would be ridden of blots and barnacles which have too long hampered it. The doctor's appeal in the interest of education, industrial as well as academical, was one of the grandest flights we have ever heard and which will be remembered for its truth and beauty. Much credit is due to the Oddfellows of Middleburg for the enterprise they exhibited in getting up this meeting. The members of the Household of Ruth assisted in a large degree to make the evening entertainment a social and financial success. There are many teachers here from Washington and other parts who attended the anniversary exercises and agree that the occasion was highly entertaining and profitable. We regret the speech of Dr. Richardson cannot be published for the edification of the race. On Saturday and Sunday the doctor was entertained in a good country style manner. On Sunday afternoon Dr. Richardson addressed the Sunday school in a modest but beautiful manner. The address was short but pointed and highly appreciated. Much credit is due to Mr. Oliver L. Grant who has become a sort of oracle in and about Middleburg, for the success of the celebration. The doctor left for home Sunday evening, accompanied by Mr. Grant to the Plains, with the best wishes of the people of this burgh and a pressing invitation to return.

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

COL. ROBERT H. KEYS GREETED HIS WIFE.

One of the most brilliant and enjoyable receptions was held last Wednesday evening at the residence of Col. Robert H. Keys, 211 3rd street southwest. The occasion was given in honor of Mrs. Sadie R. Keys by her husband, in honor of her return from a three months tour in the west. The table was arranged in T shape and was most handsomely decorated with natural roses and other choice flowers.

Mrs. Keys looked most charming in her pure white swiss and diamond jewelry. The colonel was faultlessly dressed in full black, while the male invited guests wore very becoming evening dress, while the ladies were attired in lovely colored organdies. Mrs. Cooper looked most charming as well as Madame Lester, who has been recently married. Prof. T. L. Furby and Madame Lester alternately presided at the piano. The supper was served in courses and they consisted of everything that would be pleasing to the most fastidious.

After supper many games were played as well as address delivered by Drs. Childs, Clayton, Editor E. E. Cooper, Prof. Furby, Mr. R. H. Keys and Mr. W. Calvin Chase.

Among some of the many guests present were: Misses May, Virginia Lee, Craig, Peek, Forester and Madame E. E. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Tibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Lester, Dr. Beckley, Messrs. T. A. Campbell, Bowen and others.

SUPT. COOK TO REMAIN.

THE TRUSTEES MUST SUPPORT HIM OR RESIGN FROM THE BOARD.—SUPERVISING PRINCIPALS WHO ARE INSUBORDINATE WILL BE REMOVED.

The BEE has been reliably informed that Superintendent George F. T. Cook will not be removed from the superintendency of the colored schools. Commissioner J. W. Ross, who has charge of the schools, is convinced that Mr. Cook has not received the support that he is entitled to from certain trustees. Mr. Ross has been made aware that there have been many acts of insubordination on the part of some one or two supervising principals who will undoubtedly be removed if the offense is repeated. The colored trustees will be instructed to support Mr. Cook in the conduct of the colored schools and if they don't some few changes will take place.

Mr. Ross intends to stand by Mr. Cook in his efforts to improve the school system. Heretofore certain supervising principals have been allowed to do as they please and then be supported in these acts of insubordination by the local trustees. All of this must now cease. No local trustee will hereafter be permitted to give a supervising principal the right to violate any order coming from the superintendent, in the event that one does this, Mr. Cook will immediately suspend the violator and recommend his dismissal to the board of trustees.

GRADE MEETINGS

that have been so foreign in the colored schools must be resumed and a uniform system of instructions adopted among all of the supervising principals. The colored trustees will receive their instructions from Commissioner Ross before the opening of the schools in September.

THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.

When honest men will take the places of beasts.

When moral reformers will change their tactics.

When wife beaters will get their just punishment.

When good wives will receive support from their husbands.

When lazy men will do a good day's work.

When colored lawyers will do their duty.

Why a first class colored bar association is not organized.

THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO SEE.

This new leadership speak out.

T. Thomas Fortune cease being a candidate for office.

John Mitchell, Jr., come to Congress.

Thomas L. Jones elected in the 4th Virginia district.

W. A. Pledger given an office.

Commissioner J. W. Ross placed on the Peace Commission.

Commissioner Wright appoint a colored man under the District government.

IT IS RUMORED.

There will be no change in the superintendency of the colored schools.

The trustees are to call the supervising principals to a halt.

The authority of these principals to be curtailed.

J. M. Ricks will get married.

E. M. Hewlett is tired of a bachelor life.

Thompson and Cooper will get the drop.

They both will return to Indiana.

"The man that once did sell the lion's skin while the beast still lived, was killed while hunting him."

Major Fleetwood's name is being considered by the President.

There will be one appointed.

Demas will be reappointed.

THE BEE'S School of Printing will be one of the best institutions of its character in the United States.

THE COLORED SOLDIER.

There was a large and distinguished audience present on last Sunday evening at the Plymouth Congregational church, 17th and P streets N. W. The occasion was the Christian Endeavor and the bravery of the colored soldier.

Rev. Mr. Garner, the pastor, called the meeting to order and presided, while Mr. Lewis Neal under whose auspices the meeting was held assisted.

The principal address was delivered by Mr. J. C. Styles of Georgia, a young man of ability. His address was full of logic and pathos. Recorder Cheatham, who was to have delivered the principal address, sent a letter of regret on account of sickness. Miss Lenora Neal, read extracts from certain papers on the colored soldier so did Mr. L. H. Hershaw. He also read a very interesting poem dedicated to the colored soldier.

Mr. W. Calvin Chase, was introduced and delivered a short address on the colored soldier and the discriminating against him. Mr. J. W. Cromwell, read a very interesting letter from his wife's brother who is now at Santiago. The closing address was delivered by Mr. Charles H. Shorter.

There is no necessity of paying double prices when you can purchase the same and better goods for less money. SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

We would respectfully call our readers' attention to a new field of labor that THE BEE has inaugurated at its office, 1109 I street, N. W.—a School of Printing for colored youths. It is the intention of the management that any who may avail themselves of the advantages of this school, shall receive a complete practical training in the art of printing in all its branches.

The instructions will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Chase, member of the Typographical Union of this city, and who is without doubt among the best all-round printers in the country. Our facilities will be augmented by an entire new printing outfit, including all the latest styles of type, job presses and cylinder press, which will give pupils a chance to be up-to-date in the trade. In this connection we would ask our patrons to send in their orders for job work of any kind, as we will now be able to fill all orders from the smallest visiting card to the largest poster, and promise that our prices and work will compare favorably with those of any firm in the city.

Any young man desiring a trade will do well to write us for terms, etc., or call at this office and look over the establishment. The school will open on July 26th, and those desiring tuition will do well to inquire at once, as only a limited number can of necessity be accommodated. For information, terms, etc., Address, W. Calvin Chase, Manager Bee School of Printing.

Thanking you for past favors, and feeling a sure of your support in this new endeavor, we are yours,

THE BEE.

32nd NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT G. A. R.

Of Cincinnati, Ohio—September 5th to 10th, 1898. Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

For this occasion tickets will be sold at the low rate of ONE FARE for the ROUND TRIP from all points on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad east of Pittsburgh, Parkersburg and Wheeling, inclusive, good good going on September 3rd and 4th, and good returning not earlier than September 5th, nor later than September 10th, except by depositing ticket with Joint Agent at Cincinnati, between September 5th and 9th inclusive, and on payment of fee of twenty-five (25) cents, when return limit may be extended to leave Cincinnati, to and including October 2nd, 1898.

Owing to the great patriotic wave sweeping the country at the present time, great interest will be manifested at this meeting. Solid Vestibled Trains of elegant coaches, Pullman Sleeping Cars, Observation Cars and splendid Dining Car Service. Three through trains daily from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, and two from Pittsburgh.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built, especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for special comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when traveling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1:00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited" will leave Washington at 5:00 P. M., arriving New York at 8:10 P. M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the Second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking

Jerusalem was a focus of industrial activity, and its tradesmen, artisans and artificers, constituted an important part of the population. Many of the practical arts had been learned from Egypt, and Phœnicia. Certain trades began to flourish in Israel during the reign of the Judges, but not until the reign of the wise Kings were architecture and kindred trades encouraged. Some of the trades had powerful guilds, composed of tailors, glaziers, builders, goldsmiths, plaster-ers, shoemakers and blood-letters or doctors. Some of these trades were assigned to special localities.
